Mobile traders and any other hawker, trader or stall holder who is regarded as medium or high risk must have—and provide a copy of—public liability insurance to cover them for at least $10 million in the event of injury or loss suffered by a member of the public as a result of the licensed activity. If you are in this category, please include your certificate of currency with this application to avoid delays.

All other hawkers, traders and stall holders are encouraged to obtain their own public liability insurance to cover them in the event of injury or loss suffered by a member of the public as a result of the licensed activity.

Food vendors must provide a copy of their food business registration certificate under the Food Act 2008 of WA showing approval to undertake the kind of activity referred to in this application. The business must be registered to sell food at the specified location as well as anywhere else that the food will be stored or handled prior to trading.
