VANDELEUR, Luke

Hello, I'm Luke Vandeleur and I've called Carnarvon home for the past 6 years with my wife and 2 daughters.

I don't have a long history in town, but I'll be raising my family here for many years to come. For that reason, I'm focussed on our town's future and that's what I am offering.

With professional experience in the finance sector and as a local business owner my focus will be on:

- Supporting economic development in our town by focusing on local content, local business and new enterprises
- Creating an effective council and connecting it to the community with communication and transparency
- Robust discussion and decision making that focuses on our town and doesn't hamper future opportunities

Your council needs to open Carnarvon for business, the time for that is now.

I'm optimistic and energised about Carnarvon's future and confident we can realise our town's potential.
